FREE HUNTERS WHO SHOOT DOE

November 21st—Amendment of the state "buck law" to provide hunters who shoot doe will not be subject to the penalty provided they bring the animals into camp and notify a game warden, is favored by John Baird, director of conservation, he said this week.

Baird believes some such provision is needed to make it possible for hunters to "live up to the law." It would not make things easier for the hunter who shoots at a doe thinking it a buck.

Baird pointed out, because it would be necessary to clean the animal and haul it into camp for the game warden.

The same system would be applied to other game killed by mistake during a closed season. Wardens would be instructed to turn the animals over to state or county institutions, Lansing State Journal.

Last fall when Russell Peterson and a number of comrades were attending the Gaylord fair and having a good time, Dan Hoesli, our congenial "D. man," noticed them, upon his return to Grayling happened to meet Russell's mother, Mrs. John Benson and just for a joke told her that Russell was in the Gaylord coop. Naturally the mother was quite worried and anxious until Dan let the cat out of the bag and admitted that he was only joking. Mrs. B. is a good scout and took the joke alright, but recently when her son Russell, Carlyle Brown and Dan's son Emerson had been out hunting and coming home early in the evening had supper at her home and while the boys were pleasantly spending the evening together at that place, Mrs. Benson called up Dan and asked him if he had heard about the boys getting into trouble. Of course he had not and was told that they were in jail, charged with hunting without a license. Dan said he didn't even know his boy had gone hunting, and hot-footed it for the jail where he accused the sheriff and wanted to know why he arrested the boy. Jess didn't know anything about any boys being arrested, and told Dan so. The latter then rushed back to the telephone for more information and reported to Mrs. Benson what he had heard. The anxious father was almost breathless with excitement, until he was informed by his tormentor that she was just getting even with him for the joke he pulled on her last summer. Well, they both had a good laugh and called it square. "Who laughs last, laughs best," you know, Dan.

While the Red Cross Roll Call is over the Roll Call Committees feel that the time should be extended for the Townships to make up their quota of money allotted to them.

Heretofore the Townships have not as a whole raised much of the Roll Call fund, but this year the Township chairmen have had such good organizations that they have taken in about five times as much as any time in the past six years.

The amount necessary for running the nurse's car ($300) is chiefly spent in county work and tho they have done comparatively well, yet it may be possible to complete the needed sum later. The Junior Red Cross may be able to help the seniors in this as it is certainly a worthy service to their communities, and "Henry Durant" (the nurse's car) is a faithful servant. He gladly goes over the hills and thru the ice and snow whenever he can and whenever he is needed. Just as he did the first day the road to Lovells was open to traffic, and he carries big loads. And he went one day last spring taking four mothers and six children, besides six nurses, at one time, from up in the hills and back again. Neither is he afraid of the dark for he goes to meetings at night whenever called.

Mr. and Mrs. West and children of Chicago spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Hoff.

Edgar Caid had a most thrilling experience last week. A hunter had shot a bear thru the shoulder. The bear became maddened and started for Ed on his hind feet. He shot seven times and the bear dropped. It weighed 200 pounds and measured five feet two inches in length.

Mrs. James Doby entertained the Lovells folks Saturday night with a party. A fine time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Caid winning first prizes and Charles Papenfus and Cora Nephew winning the consolation prizes.

Glen Gregg of Cadillac spent Thanksgiving with Cora Nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kennedy and Emmet Pierce of Lewiston and Mrs. E. McCormick of Detroit were in Lovells Saturday night and attended the card party.

Clayton Kellogg was here to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kellogg.

TO USE MILLIONS IN CORN CRISIS RELIEF

Washington.—Plans for financing the middle western corn crop on a big scale, including the "margin" marketing of that crop and relief for farmers, bankers and business men who are adversely affected by the heavy drop in corn prices were considered at a conference of bankers and business men from Chicago and Iowa. The conference was called by Secretary Jardine.

As a result of the conference there will in all probability be formed a national agricultural credits association such as is contemplated under the intermediate credits act. More than one of these associations, in fact, may be formed.

Such associations would be able under the law to make loans directly to farmers on the security of their crops and to obtain rediscount on the notes from the intermediate credits bank.

The present complaint of the farmers is that the price of corn has slumped so heavily that they are unable to get credit from the commercial banks to enable them to hold their crops until they can get better prices.

The heavy slump in corn prices has seriously affected the banking and business situation of some sections of the corn belt.

In Iowa, where corn has been selling at about 50 cents, the farmer has felt the situation severely. If the present plan works out as expected millions of dollars will be made available for quick loans to corn-belt farmers.

Mrs. Rhinelander Poses Before Jury to Show Color

New York.—The two mysterious letters from Leonard Kip Rhinelander to his negro wife, written before their marriage, were read after an impassioned contest between attorneys on the two sides. They proved to be every bit as shocking as was expected. They were such that Supreme Court Justice Morschauser ordered all women excluded from the court during the reading.

When both letters had been read and he was asked why he wrote them, he said that "Alice asked me to."

Mrs. Rhinelander was told to go into the jury room, where before the jury and a lawyer from each side she heard the upper part of her body. She was crying as she was led to the room, and crying as she left it, but her ordeal seemed to convince some of those who were present that she was dark-hued. It was one of the most extraordinary moments of this extraordinary case.

Expert Says High Winds Caused Shenandoah Wreck

Washington.—Terrific winds, rather than pressure or structural weakness caused the destruction of the airship Shenandoah.

This was the testimony of Charles P. Burgess, expert on airship construction, before the naval court of inquiry which is investigating the airship's destruction. Mr. Burgess stated that after careful calculations and a thorough study of the wreckage he was confident that gas pressure had nothing whatever to do with the ship breaking up.

Waterway to the Gulf Urged Next Five Years Urged

St. Louis.—A waterway opened from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico within five years was the demand of the Mississippi Valley association as it convened its seventh annual convention.

The association called on congress to spend $240,000,000 to open the deep waterway which would connect Chicago, St. Paul, Pittsburgh, Nashville, Minneapolis and Kansas City with New Orleans and the sea and called on all forces in the Mississippi valley to combine to bring about the deep waterway.

U. S. Men Destroy Wine Valued at Over $80,000

Bath, N. Y.—Federal and county authorities raided the White Top champagne cellars at Gibson's Landing, ten miles north of Hammondsport, destroyed 18,000 gallons of champagne, brandy and rare wines, valued at more than $80,000, and four 25-gallon stills.

Charles Wheeler, owner, was arraigned here later charged with operating the cellars without a license.

3 Acquitted of Murder of Woman at Fox Lake

Waukegan, Ill.—Mrs. Clara Harco was acquitted on the charge of killing her mother, Mrs. Little Holt. Likewise Mrs. Harco's husband, Albert, and her stepfather, Arthur Holt, were acquitted.

find out the poor cow that does not pay her way.

The State and The United States dairy authorities agree that one cow in three is kept at a loss. Probably you think it isn't you but the other fellow, who has the poor ones.

Two Weeks for Fall Plowing

We had two weeks in November suitable for fall plowing. How many turned a furrow? We heard of one farm on which the enterprising owner got eight acres plowed; another 24; another 25. That's the way to put the spring work forward, and to be able to keep a big bunch of stock.

Big Improvement On Pleasant Valley Farm

It would do an ambitious man's heart good to see the improvements on Pleasant Valley farm, the home of Mrs. John Love, her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Visnaw, and William Love, the son, who, with Mrs. Visnaw, is now carrying on the farm. Main barn reshingled; cow barn, in rear, rebuilt; and provided with new cement floor with gutters; good, practical mangers; new swing stanchions; litter carrier hung on overhead track, and milking machine. Cows did it all. Paid for it all. Other improvements will follow another season. They use a large silo and feed lots of purchased grain ration.

Who else will give us something to report of progress among our farmers?

BEST SOURCE OF WEALTH IS ECONOMY

It was Cicero who is credited with saying that, "the source of wealth is economy." Of course, in Cicero's time they had taxes just as proportionately heavy as we are having now, but they were imposed in autocratic fashion and collected with spear points if necessary. It is a question whether Cicero had in mind governmental economy as much as private economy, although he points out that economy in the State is a source of wealth. If it were not for the present administration this country would not be now discounting in good business the possibility of reduced taxes. The persistent slogan of private economy, public economy and reduced taxes, if carried into effect, should make the future of this country a very rosy one.

FRANCE IS READY TO BALK FASCISTI RULE

Troops Prepared to March Into Paris to Prevent Coup d'Etat.

Paris.—While the government is holding troops in readiness near the capital to march into the city and stop any attempt at a coup d'etat, Paris newspapers are warning agitators and the people to remain calm and to remember that a revolutionary attempt such as that of the Fascisti and Mussolini in Italy cannot succeed.

Meanwhile Aristide Briand was attempting to form a ministry after that job had been given up by Senator Doumergue and former Premier Herriot. M. Briand accepted the commission from President Doumergue reluctantly. He was asked to organize a government immediately after Poincaré's fall, but after consideration reported he was unable to do so.

Extremist publications in Paris, both the far right and the far left, talk frankly of the possibility of an attempt at a fascist coup in France. More moderate newspapers warn against such an effort in more veiled terms.

The people are anathetic over the government crisis. They observe only that prices are slowly rising, a tendency which has been continuous since the war, and they are told by the newspapers that the franc is falling, but they observe little personal effect from the fall.

Girl and Two Men Admit Bombing Stores in Chicago

Chicago.—Origin of all of Chicago's recent bomb outrages was revealed, according to State's Attorney Crowe, when Fred N. Wanquist and his sweetheart broke down under a long grilling and confessed that they perpetrated five of the bombings.

Information was obtained to disclose a "bomb trust" that made a business of explosions at $200 each. Wanquist and the woman, Mrs. Lena Rice, twenty-three, divorcee and mother of three, were caught by police after they had exploded a bomb at 1339 Fullerton avenue. Wanquist and another man, Jose Ayazulu, were slightly wounded.

Mrs. Rice first gave her name as Lea McClellan, then as Lea McLullin, then as Lee McCullum. She is a daughter of H. C. Schrock, a prominent citizen of Richmond, Ohio. Her deserted husband is Archie L. Rice of Benton Harbor, Mich.

Maj. Gen. Patrick Declares His Plans Were Ignored

Washington.—In his annual report Maj. Gen. Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service declared that not one of his recommendations last year had so far resulted in tangible action.

The service should be increased to that recommended by the Lassiter committee, he said, and action should be taken to give the service the same status that the marine corps has in the navy. This recommendation has been opposed by the War department and the general staff.

Funds are needed, the report declared, to provide safe flying equipment for existing units and a separate budget is asked to take care of the needs of the air service.

39,000 See "Red" Grange Play First Game With Bears

Chicago.—Harold ("Red") Grange, the Galloping Ghost of Illinois, did his stuff for the Bears at Cubs' park here. "Red," the untouchable, played a great game offensively, but all his individual brilliance was not great enough to put over a score for his team and the Bears and the Cardinals battled to a 0 to 0 tie. It was a brilliant, fiercely contested battle and 39,000 fans saw a great football game.

It has been several years since the town has had a community Christmas tree. This year however through the efforts of the Goodfellowship club, a beautiful symbol of Christmas cheer in the shape of a huge tree, which will be placed in the center of Michigan and Peninsular avenues will pour out the light of "Peace on earth and good will toward men" to hundreds of Grayling citizens on Christmas eve. Mrs. Marius Hanson will have charge of the arrangements of the tree, while Mrs. C. G. Clippert will have charge of the music. It is the wish of the club that each and every person will cooperate with them in making the project a success so that the entire community may gather as one family around the fir tree and sing the old time carols and hymns, which are so full of the real Christmas spirit.

Chorus:
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,

BY JOHN DICKINSON SHERMAN

THE Christmas Carol comes back to its own as a time-honored feature of the Christmas tide. It looks so. And it is to be hoped that it is so. For the singing of Christmas Carols will help to popularize the religious observance of the day.

which is losing ground year by year in this material age.

Probably there is no room in our Twentieth Century civilization for carol-singing after the old way. But carol-singing on a large scale is admirable as many American cities abundantly proved in 1923. It was made a community service. Many singers were enlisted and trained. Carols were sung in hospitals, orphanages and other institutions. The message of home was carried to the traveler.

Mass-singing in municipal auditoriums was received with popular acclaim. This community service was strangely reminiscent of the old-time "Waits"—street musicians who were an established institution of English cities, wearing "Waits badges" with the town arms.

The singing of carols is much older than Christmas, just as the midwinter festival of good cheer long antedates the celebration of Christmas as the anniversary of the birth of Christ. The pagan Britons celebrated this midwinter festival; so did the Romans and many European peoples. It was not until the fourteenth century that this festival became identified with the church festival of Christmas—"Christ-mass."

Have you discovered that it is very easy indeed to dance to some of the Christmas Carols? Well, it is. And that's because "Carols" was originally a term for a dance or for songs intermingled with dancing. It was a long time before the word came to be applied strictly to a religious Christmas song.

Primitive man makes merry, you know, in song and dance and boisterous play. It is not hard to see in the Christmas of modern times plain evidence of the pagan origin of midwinter festivities. The "Yule Log" undoubtedly spread from the ancient Lithuanians and Letts, whose Christmas Eve was "Log Evening." The

Boys Kill Cattle

One would find it hard to attribute any virtue to the terrible cholera eviscerates, the most spiny and beautiful of all American plants. Staring cattle in desperation try to pierce the thorax barbed with a mouthful of the tempting green pulp within, only to die slowly from the festering barbs. In extremely dry seasons the ranchmen often set a torch to these. Only the thorax burn and the nourishing joints remain as safe fodder.

Law Saves Wild Flowers

Bayern Alpine tourists carrying bunches of edelweiss have been rudely surprised when, upon reaching villages, they have been taken into custody by the police. "It is criminal to pick flowers!" they ask in amazement, and are told that it is—that is, to pick certain flowers. The German so loves flowers and the number of "wonder birds" or summer tourists and walkers in the German mountains is so great

There was a long pause when nothing was accomplished.

"If I have to lick another stamp," declared Tessie Tongue, "I absolutely won't have enough energy to talk, and that's my chief business."

"If I have to scratch off another address," scolded Hannah Hand, "I shan't be able to life a finger for a month."

"If I have to give another glance at an address book, I shall go blind," muttered Elsie Eyes.

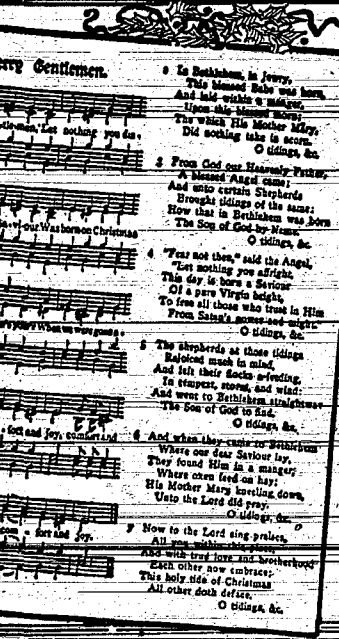

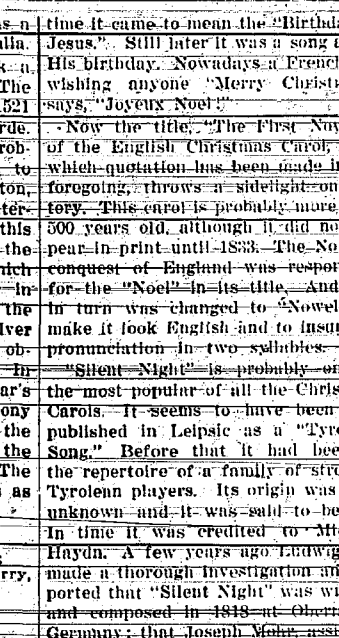

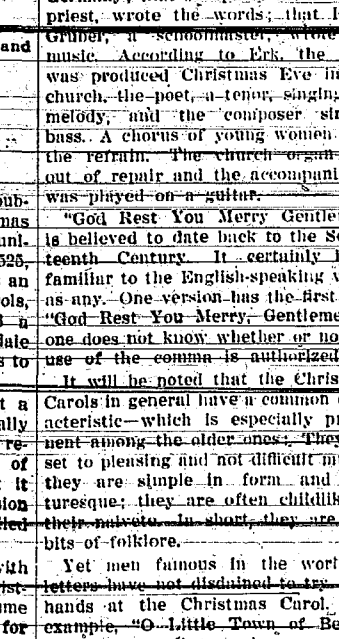

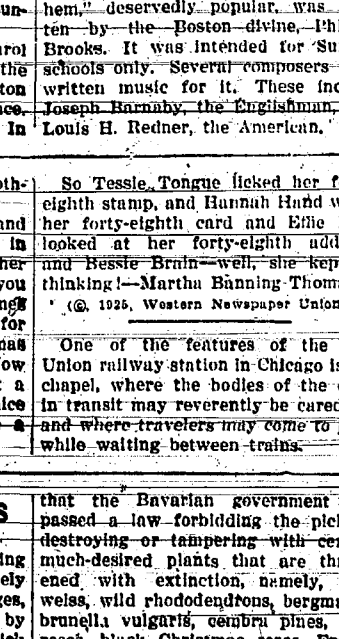

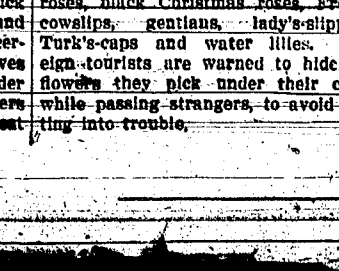

There was a long pause when nothing was accomplished.

"If you all don't stop fussing and complaining," I won't think another thought!" And then where would you be? I run you all and have ten times the work; if you can't obey orders for a few hours, to address Christmas cards, you're a pretty poor lot. Now let's start in once more, and not a word out of you. There's that nice old Mrs. Hopkins—she must have a card if nobody else does."

So Tessie Tongue flicked her forty-eight stamp, and Hannah Hand wrote her forty-eighth card and Elsie Eyes looked at her forty-eighth address, and Bessie Brain—well, she kept on thinking—Martha Banning Thomas.

One of the features of the new Union railway station in Chicago is the chapel, where the bodies of the dead in transit may reverently be cared for and where travelers may come to pray while waiting between trains.

that the Bavarian government has passed a law forbidding the picking, destroying or tampering with certain much-desired plants that are threatened with extinction, namely, edelweiss, wild rhododendrons, bergmadi, brunella vulgaris, centuria pinis, rock roses, black Christmas roses, French cowslips, gentians, lady's-slippers, Turk's-caps and water lilies. Foreign tourists are warned to hide the flowers they pick under their coats while passing strangers, to avoid getting into trouble.

"But constipation is serious, Grace"

"Not so long ago I was like you—headaches a good deal of the time, sleeping badly, and the least bit of housework tired me out. My complexion too, was bad."

"Finally, I went to see Dr. Farman. He showed me that it was constipation that was back of my troubles. He said that it was a very serious thing because poisons from clogged waste matter were picked up by the blood and carried to every body organ. And if I didn't correct it in time I might become a victim of one of those terrible organic diseases."

"He made me drop laxatives altogether, changed my diet, and put me on Nujol. I don't think I've ever felt better."

I sleep well, my headaches have disappeared, and you can see for yourself what an improvement there is in my skin. Nujol has done wonders for me."

Nujol Works Like Nature

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It is neither a food nor a medicine. It does not gripe. It is gentle and natural in its action and is prescribed by leading medical authorities.

Nujol simply makes up for a deficiency—temporary or chronic—in the supply of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles.

Nujol can be taken for any length of time without ill effect. To insure internal cleanliness, it should be taken regularly, in accordance with the directions on each bottle. As Nujol is not a laxative, it does not form a habit and can be discontinued at any time.

Ask your druggist for Nujol today and begin the perfect health that is possible only when intestinal elimination is normal and regular.

Mrs. Minnie Penn, who was in Grayling for a few days visiting friends left Wednesday night for Auburn.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. Michael's church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at the church.

The dancing party given by Grayling American Legion Post No. 106 at the high school gymnasium, last night, proved to be a very enjoyable affair. There was a good sized crowd present and dancing to the music of Schram's Ramblers made the evening pass most pleasantly and it was a fitting closing to the holiday—Thanksgiving. The Legion had for some time wanted to do something for their esteemed comrades and friends. Bill Henningson, who was injured in an auto accident on Decoration day while the boys were returning from Frederic after holding services and so the dancing party was planned. $277.00 was the sum derived from the effort which the boys duly presented to "Bill", who is still a patient at the hospital and who is most grateful for the gift. Also a beautiful hand embroidered buffet set was sold that evening which brought in $10.00. Ben Landberg being the lucky ticket holder.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Parker received the sad word Sunday of the death of their oldest daughter, Mrs. Anna Foland, wife of Earl Foland of Lansing, who passed away at a hospital in that city of peritonitis that morning. Mrs. Foland and her family had planned to come to Grayling for Thanksgiving, but instead sent her parents word that she was unable to come on account of illness. She entered the hospital Wednesday. Mrs. Foland, who was formerly Miss Anna Parker was born in Beaver Creek township. She grew to womanhood in this county and resided here up to a few years ago when the family moved to Lansing. Surviving besides her husband are two small children, a daughter age 7 and a son age 5, her parents, Claude and Parker of Lansing. Mrs. Axel Peterson, Edward, Grace and Milford at home. Mr. and Mrs. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left Sunday to be in attendance at the funeral.

E. A. Wright, manager of the Grayling Electric Co. was in the city last Friday evening and while here stated that they expected that the new, high voltage electric lines that are being built to Grayling from Cheboygan, would be ready for service about next Saturday. This will be glad news for the people of Grayling. For the greater part of the past year the city has been greatly inconvenienced by having to get along with abbreviated electric service, and for the past summer we have had no street lights, making the nights dark and gloomy and also dangerous for pedestrians. Besides the limited service, the voltage has been so low at times that it was almost impossible for housewives to use their electric flatirons and other household appliances. There will be an abundance for all kinds of power as well as for domestic needs. The former owners of the Electric Company rendered a splendid service to the people of Grayling until the demands for electricity became so heavy that they were no longer able to cope with the situation with the equipment they then possessed and it was necessary that they either went to the expense of building an auxiliary plant or sell their plant to one of the larger power companies, and they did the latter. The work of building the new line is just about finished and connections with the local system will soon be made. We have waited long and patiently for the required service and all will be glad when their patience has been adequately rewarded, which will be very soon. Already several additional houses have been wired in anticipation of improved electric service.
